Reminiscent of Lincoln County During the War.

I wrote you a letter on Morgan's first raid in Kentucky in the Spring of '62, when he crossed the Cumberland river. Every one thought that was the last of the Confederates, but on the last day of July in '62, Gen. Kirby Smith had swung around the Union army at Cumberland Gap and came down to Richmond on July 30. He met the Union army at old Mt. Zion church, where a battle was fought on the old Palmer T. Embry and Maupin farms. Col. Warner and Lt. Col. Landram, of the 18th Union Regiment, were badly wounded. There Col. Warner was shot in the left side. Landram had one eye shot out. The regiment fell back about 200 yards. They recovered. Gen. John Miller got it in line of battle on the Garrett Elkin farm. The next round Gen. Miller was shot from his horse and crawled in a stable. When the Confederates came up they asked him who he was and he told them and said he would like to be carried down to his old friend, Brother Tom Palmer. They put him in an ambulance and took him there, where he died nine days later. I can never forget the night he died; how he called on his brave boys to gather around him. He was a fine man. His brother, James Miller, lived on Dix river in Lincoln county for many years. His four sons, John, Dan, James and Will all went into the Confederate army with Napier and Morgan and were said to be fine soldiers.

Gen. Kirby Smith captured Richmond and 8,000 prisoners, about 4,000 getting away; fled through cornfields and every way to make their escape. Smith moved on to Lexington and captured it.

The next day Gen. Morgan came in at the head of 1,200 or 1,500 cavalry. It was his first visit to his home. Morgan then had three battalions, one under Duke, one under Gano and one under W. C. P. Breckinridge, all of whom became prominent men in the Confederate army. Gano, Bragg and Buell got there first and reinforced his army to 100,000 men and came out and only part of each army met at Perryville, where a battle was fought on Oct. 8, 1862. Bragg left the State by way of Crab Orchard. Gen. Smith went by way of Richmond. Wheeler covered Bragg's retreat and Morgan covered Smith's. When Smith reached the foot of Big Hill Gen. Morgan came back and marched all night, reaching Lexington about daylight and after a sharp fight at Woodland Park captured a Union regiment. He then marched rapidly to Louisville, threw a few shells into the city and tore up a portion of the L & N. track. He overtook Bragg at Stone river in Tennessee, where the next great battle was fought. In '62 there was a body of Confederate soldiers camped in Shelby's woods, young men going South under Bob Alston. There were a number of Home Guards from Danville who attacked them and a sharp fight followed. Alston was afterward chief of Morgan's staff with the rank of lieutenant colonel on the Ohio raid. He was killed in Atlanta, Ga., by Col. Cox in a personal encounter. Cox was sent to the penitentiary but was later pardoned by Alex Stephens. I saw Stephens once in Atlanta, Ga., after the war. Since a boy in Lincoln county I look back and find all my father's friends are gone, John K. Baughman, Horace Withers, Judge Bailey, Leo Hayden, Newton Craig, Col. Napier, Wm. Vandiver,

James Miller, L. Withers, M. C. Portman, George Tribble Richard Cobh, James A. Harris, Col. Hill, Tim Pennington and many others are now at rest on the banks of the Jordan; all the men. Of my old schoolmates Sam Baughman, Jim and Mack Bruce, Bob Porter and Tom Robinson are all I remember being left.

The old Confederates left in Fayette were Col. Dick and Charlton Morgan, Lt. Col. Coleman, Maj. Bullock and the Payne brothers. In Madison are Col. McCreary, Joe Collins, Nath Deatherage and Joe Maupin. In Garrard are Capt. Bob Terrill, Alex Doty, Tom Arnold, Wm. Denton and others. Lincoln has her Judge Saufley, Judge Alcorn, Col. Jim Guest, Cap Peyton and Sam Hayes. Boyle has Col. Breckinridge, Tribble, Baughman, Durham and Barber. They are passing away and will all soon be gone to a better and brighter world.

I have been over every foot of the ground that Gen. Grant went over when he left Shiloh for Vicksburg, and over the ground he trod when he went from the Potomac to Appomattox following Lee, and Sherman when he followed Johnson from the city of Chattanooga to the coast. I have heard Mr. Alec Stephens say that the campaigns the last year of the war from the Potomac to Appomattox by Lee and Johnson from Dalton to the coast were never excelled by any men on earth.

Two of the most desperate men in Kentucky were Ferguson, who was killed at the foot of the mountains in Lincoln county, and Bridgewater, who was killed in a hotel at Stanford by Walter Saunders, who was afterward made sheriff of Lincoln county.

Lincoln county used to send her best men to the front. She has two fine men in office now, Helm and Shanks. They can hold up the banner and talk for democratic principles. Judge Saufley or Owlsley will either make a fine judge. I would like to see Hon. R. J. Breckinridge governor of Kentucky and McCreary and Saufley in the U. S. Senate. All three are brilliant, able men. The old democratic party has got to put her best men up if she ever expects to come to the front again, and let little men go. For Congress next time Boyle will have a son in W. J. Price. Mr. Helm will be presented by Lincoln county. Both are fine men. Price is as game a democrat as ever fought for party.

I am an American and for America all the time. I can remember when the old democratic party was led by such men as John C. Breckinridge, Mr. Stephenson, Mr. Powell and Gov. Magoffin, and when the old Whigs were led by Crittenden, Bell, Dunlap, Harbin and others. These were all able men and could carry their flag anywhere. Let the old party be led by such men as McCreary, Saufley, Breckinridge and others, and the younger set by John R. Allen, Mr. Johnson, Helm, Price, Owlesley and others. Put these men to the front and victory will perch on our banner once more.

DEMOCRAT OF 1860.

Mr. F. G. Franks, Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble." Foley's Orino Laxative is best for women and children, as it is mild, pleasant and effective, and is a splendid spring medicine, as it cleanses the system and clears the complexion. NEWS NOTES.

Charles Warren Stoddard, the author, died at Monterey, Cal.

The ice jam at Niagara Falls has been partly broken by the use of dynamite.

Col. Bennett H. Young and S. A. Cunningham purchased the birthplace of Jefferson Davis at Fairview.

The Waters-Pierce Oil Company paid its fine in Texas. The amount $1,808,753.95 was paid in cash.

Robbers entered the bank at Buffalo, Leon county, Texas, dynamited the safe and escaped with $3,400 in cash.

At Mt. Carmel, Ill., Mrs. Lib Lucas and her son, Jesse Lucas, were given life terms for the murder of Clyde Shewalter.

Two additional letters demanding a ransom for James Shepard Cabanne, Ill., have been received by the boy's grandfather. The sum fixed is $4,000. The letters were mailed in Chicago.

Beach Hargis, his mother and grandmother were on the witness stand at Irvine and the testimony given was to the effect that Judge Hargis had made more than one attempt to kill his son.

The grand jury at Mercer, Pa., returned one indictment each against Lee, and Sherman when he followed Johnson from the city of Chattanooga to the coast. I have heard Mr. Alec Stephens say that the campaigns the last year of the war from the Potomac to Appomattox by Lee and Johnson from Dalton to the coast were never excelled by any men on earth.

Mrs. Minnie Crosby, of Hattiesburg, Miss., confessed that she pulled the trigger which sent the contents of a shotgun into the head of J. R. McShane, whose body was found in a secluded spot in the Leaf River swamp.

Judge M. J. Gordon, former counsel for the Great Northern Railway, was arrested at Spokane on indictments by the grand jury. He is charged with embezzlement of funds from the railway company while acting as its attorney.

Gov. Judson Harmon, receiver of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, confirms the report that the receivership will be lifted in a few days, and that it will be followed by the taking over of the property by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

After burning 14 days, sweeping over an area of 200,000 acres and causing an estimated loss of $50,000, the prairie fire near Pine Lick creek, which was broken, measured and paid for by the county last fall, has not been used to fill up the deep holes in the road, which are within a stone's throw of the pile? Please explain.

W. G. and Thomas Routon have returned from an extended visit to friends at Mannsville and Campbellsville. D. J. Newbern was called to Bolivar, Tenn., to attend the funeral of his brother, who dropped dead at Conway, Ark. Born to the wife of P. H. Richards, a 10-pound daughter—Geneva. John D. Burton will serve as a juror in the Federal court at Richmond this week.

Mrs. Cordia, wife of Geo. A. Smith, died on the 18th after a lingering illness of consumption, aged 27. Her husband and four children survive. She was a devout member of the Baptist church and beloved by all who knew her. Interment took place in McKinney cemetery and was attended by a large number of sorrowing friends and relatives. Her long suffering ceased when the Master called her home.

There will be two splendid entertainments at the opera house this week, one on Wednesday and one on Friday night. The 20 members of one of the best gymnasiums in the country will give an interesting program interspersed with high class music by their orchestra. See program for full particulars. The "Temple of Mirth" alone is worth the price of admission. Boxing, pyramids, tumbling, etc. Don't miss it.

GOV. WILLSON has pardoned W. S. Taylor, Charles Finley, John Powers, Holland Whittaker, John Davis and Zach Steele, all under indictment for complicity in the murder of Gov. Wm. Goebel in January, 1900. Not one of these assassins has ever faced a trial jury on the indictments and it is very plain that he who now disgraces the chief executive office at Frankfort never intended that they should. The Powers referred to in this case is teaching in Pennsylvania and is a brother in crime as well as in blood to Arch Fiend Caleb Powers, also at liberty because of the partisan, unjust, blind, unreasonable and unprecedented action of an unholly governor. As to Whittaker, Steele and Davis but little is known beyond the fact that their necks should be wrung. They were hirelings of Caleb Powers and are also his brothers in crime, as was W. S. Taylor. The law-abiding people of Kentucky stand aghast at the appalling prostitution of the pardoning power and feel that the constitution of our State is a mockery and that the law is a cheat. Gov. Willson tries to appease a guilty conscience and calm the storm of an outraged people by pointing to the unhappy fate of W. S. Taylor, who, the says, was forced to leave his native land and flee to another State. The chief executive, partisan that he is, can not deny that the guilty, along with the wicked, flee when no man pursues. This fact, and this alone, was the motive which impelled that irresponsible being, who befooled, befooled and disgraced the gubernatorial chair of Kentucky to fly into the arms of an Indiana governor and to seek protection from the stern mandates of Kentucky justice, which was then meted out by men mindful of their oaths.

ODD FELLOWS all over the country celebrated yesterday the 90th anniversary of the existence of the order in America. It was founded at Baltimore in 1819 under a charter from the grand lodge of England. Latest statistics show that there are 1,396,319 members now in America and that the order distributed relief last year to the amount of $5,113,000 to 137,368 brothers and 6,832 families of widows. A great and good order. May it live long and continue to prosper.

THE Wisconsin Legislature is wrestling with a bill to exempt employers from the rules of their stenographers. It provides that all transactions between an employer and his stenographer shall be accorded the same legal exemption as transactions between a church communicant and the priest to whom he confesses, a lawyer and client and a physician and patient. By this exemption, it is believed, the power of a stenographer to gain a hold over an employer is destroyed.

THE editor of the Kentucky State Journal is so wedded to his idols that nothing can change him. He wants red liquor sold anywhere and everywhere a man can put up the license and as he is set in his ways we will not try further to convince him of the error of his way. POLITICAL.

Former Senator William M. Stewart is dead at his home in Washington.

The are 75 candidates for county and city offices in Fayette. The democratic primary will be held May 4.

The Florida Senate by a vote of 24 to 7, passed a bill for the submission to the voters of that State the question of State-wide prohibition. The bill is now before the House.

Henry K. Prewitt, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, has been called to New York on legal business and there will be no meeting of the committee at The Seelbach, which had been set for to-morrow.

In the Tennessee Senate Saturday the Cummings bills, allowing the sale in cities of certain population and the manufacture in Tennessee of malt beverages containing not over 4 per cent alcohol, were rejected on second reading.

In the republican primary held in Adair county Saturday for county officers the following candidates were nominated: County attorney, M. Rey Yarberry; Circuit Clerk, W. L. Price; School Superintendent, Miss Pearl Hindman; Assessor, J. M. Wolford; County Judge, Hartfield Moss; County Clerk, L. R. Stults; Sheriff, A. B. Patterson; Coroner, Dr. C. M. Russell, and Jailer, A. W. Tarter.

Senator Dolliver was the central figure of an exciting debate on the tariff. The Iowa Senator took the Finance Committee sharply to task and declared that if the bill was passed as reported no one would be able to tell it from the Dingley bill. He declared that the schedules must be cut, and that the revision thus far was merely a joke. Senator Aldrich replied, and a sharp cross-fire debate was kept up for some time.
